Higgins Auto Wrecking, Inc. extends no specific warranties or guarantees on any parts. All warranties or guarantees are extended by the supplier that shipped the part and are limited to their terms and conditions. There are no guarantees for labor. The standard for a Used part is: Parts are warranted to be the correct part as requested and in working order. If New or Rebuilt is indicated on the invoice, the warranty on the part will be null and void if the part has been installed or attempted to be installed and is being returned for any other reason than the part is mechanically defective. If a part fails in normal use or service, the supplier has the option to furnish a replacement part or refund the price of the part. There are no returns or refunds on special order orders. The use of the part for diagnostic purposes voids all warranties.

Any claim on a defective or incorrect part must be made to Higgins Auto Wrecking, Inc. in writing within the warranty period for that part. The original purchaser must make all claims. Warranties are not transferable. The part must be returned to the supplier by a shipping method where delivery can be verified (UPS, FedEx, US Postal return receipt, etc.). The supplier must verify that it is the same part sent and is indeed defective. No refund or exchange until the supplier verifies the part condition. Orders cannot be cancelled after the shipping carrier has received the order. In such events the customer will be liable for freight charges from and back to the supplier and a restock fee up to 20% of the purchase price. If an order is cancelled before the freight carrier receives it, the customer may still be responsible for the restock fee. Parts order in error by the customer will be subject to a restocking fee and freight charges.
